

Look at the picture and choose the correct word or phrase.

- 1 If the mouse hadn't/hasn't been hungry, it wouldn't have/has gone to the garden.
- 2 The cat might not have gone/going hunting if it hadn't been sunny.
- 3 The cat would had/have been happy if it had caught the mouse.
- 4 If the mouse hadn't been/hadn't very clever, the cat could have caught it.
- 5 If the cat had had better sense, it wouldn't have/has tried to go under the door.
- 6 The mouse would/will have died if the cat had caught/catched it.

Complete the sentences using the correct form of the verbs.

- 1 They..... (laugh) at my joke if I had told it better.
- 2 If I..... (know) she was a comedian, I wouldn't have tried to impress her with my jokes.
- 3 If five elephants (not / get) into the car, it wouldn't have broken down!
- 4 She..... (open) her parachute if she had known how to!
- 5 Dr Hillary..... (not / do) research into humour if he hadn't been very bad at telling jokes when he was young.
- 6 If the children..... (not / like) the clown, they wouldn't have laughed at his act.

Complete each sentence using the word given so that it means the same as the sentence before. Use no more than five words.

- 1 I only heard one part of the act so I didn't enjoy it. would
I'm sure I if I had heard the whole of it.
- 2 I didn't believe him because I knew he was a practical joker, not
If Ihe was a practical joker, I might have believed him.
- 3 Paula found the film hilarious so she recommended it to us. Would If Paula hadn't found the film hilarious, she to us.
- 4 The sitcom wasn't funny so I turned off the TV if I wouldn't have turned off the TV
.....funny.