

Into the Wild

- 1- Would you change the big city for the countryside? Why/why not?
- 2- What are the advantages of leaving the big city?
- 3- What are the disadvantages of living in the wild?

After graduating from college, Christopher decides to leave the comforts of his home and adventure himself into the wild. Watch the scene? What does he do before leaving? Would you have the guts to do the same? Why do you think he's doing that?

What are the things that you can experience in the wild that you cannot experience in the big city? Are these things important to you? Watch the second extract.

His dream was to get to Alaska. Once there, how did he manage to survive? Watch the third extract.

Christopher thought his trip was over and decided to return home, but something went wrong and he had to stay in Alaska. Why couldn't he go back home? Watch the fourth extract.

After eating a poisonous plant, Chris gets sick and dies. Did he have a happy life? Can you be happy without all the material things the big city has to offer? Watch the last extract.

This story was based on true facts. What do you think leads a person to do what he did? Do you really think he was happy?