

Where are you going? Or Where have you been?

Past tense: Where have you been?

I have been to the zoo and then I went to the supermarket.

Present or Future tense: Where are you going?

I am going to the movies and then I am going out for a meal.

(complete the question and then use the words below to make appropriate sentence)

Example

Q. Where are you going? _____

Tomorrow market and cinema

A. Tomorrow I am going to the market and cinema.

1. Where _____

Yesterday school and my friend's house

A. _____

2. Where _____

Next week holiday to Spain and France

A. _____

3. Where _____

Next year Bangkok study University

A. I _____

4. Where _____

1 hour ago Hair cut and massage

A. I _____