

Be – Affirmative And Negative Contractions

They're happy.

I'm happy.
You're happy.
He's happy.
She's happy.
We're happy.
They're happy.

He's happy.

She's happy.

Be – Affirmative And Negative Contractions

She's not happy.

I'm not happy.
You're not happy.
He's not happy.
She's not happy.
We're not happy.
They're not happy.

He isn't happy.

I'm not happy.
You aren't happy.
He isn't happy.
She isn't happy.
We aren't happy.
They aren't happy.

Be – Affirmative And Negative Contractions

It's Winter. It's cold.

It's Summer. It's not cold.

It isn't cold.

It's cold.

It's not cold.

It isn't cold.

Be – Affirmative And Negative Contractions

A contraction is 2 words that are put together with an apostrophe.	Make an affirmative contraction with a pronoun and be (am, is, are).	Put together the pronoun and be (am, is, are) . I am = lam Take out the first letter of be (am, is, are). lam = lm Put in an apostrophe. lm = I'm	Use a contraction when speaking. Use a contraction with informal writing. I'm young.
---	---	--	--

I'm young.

I'm young
You're young.
He's young.
She's young.
It's young.
We're young.
They're young.

Be – Affirmative And Negative Contractions

One way to make a negative contraction is to put together the pronoun and be (am, is, are). Then put not behind be (am, is, are).	Put together the pronoun and be (am, is, are). She is = Sheis Take out the first letter of be (am, is, are). Sheis = Shes Put in an apostrophe. Shes = She's	Put not behind be (am, is, are). She's = She's not Not makes the sentence negative.	She's not young.
---	---	--	--------------------------------

She's not young.

I'm not young.
You're not young.
He's not young.
She's not young.
It's not young.
We're not young.
They're not young.

Be – Affirmative And Negative Contractions

Another way to make a negative contraction is to put together be (am, is, are) and not. Do this with every pronoun except I.	Put together be (am, is, are) and not. is not = isnot	Take out the o in not. isnot = isnt Put in the apostrophe. isn't	He isn't young.
--	---	--	-------------------------------

He isn't young.

I'm not young
You aren't young.
He isn't young.
She isn't young.
It isn't young.
We aren't young.
They aren't young.

Be – Affirmative And Negative Contractions

Practice.

Vocabulary

happy sad cold hot young old short tall big small easy difficult

Change the sentence to make a sentence with an affirmative contraction.

Example: I am happy. I'm happy.

I am young. _____

He is short. _____

It is easy. _____

We are cold. _____

She is sad. _____

They are tall. _____

You are old. _____

Change the sentence to make a sentence with a contraction and not.

Example: It is not small. It's not small.

You are not short. _____

We are not happy. _____

They are not sad. _____

It is not easy. _____

She is not tall. _____

He is not big. _____

Be – Affirmative And Negative Contractions

Vocabulary

happy sad cold hot young old short tall big small easy difficult

Change the sentence to make a sentence with a negative contraction.

Example: She is not old . She isn't old.

We are not happy. _____

They are not cold. _____

She is not tall. _____

I am not young. _____

It is not hot. _____

I am not happy. _____

You are not sad. _____

It is not difficult. _____

Unscramble the words and write the sentence.

Example: isn't/ happy/She She isn't happy.

easy/isn't/It _____

cold/We're _____

They're/sad/not _____ aren't/happy/You _____